

FIVERR QUICK CASH

My name is Tim and I am an online marketer. I have worked in the internet marketing industry for many years. In this short report, I want to show you 4 simple techniques that can help you earn $125.11 per day with FIVERR.

Fiverr.com is a world-wide site where buyers and sellers of products and services meet up to sell their skills and products and the buyers who are looking for services. The services offered are called “gigs” and these gigs are bought or sold starting at $5. Fiverr is used by Freelancers who sell or buy all different types of gigs. If you sign up as a buyer, you can buy products, services or tasks for $5. Some of these services offered might cost you more elsewhere but at Fiverr you can obtain a service or order a task that might usually cost more than $5 on another site. The site takes a $1 commission, so you essentially end up making $4.

What Do People Sell on Fiverr?

Writers, graphic designers and editors are quite often seen offering services for $5. A writer might offer to write a 300 word article for $5. Or a writer can also offer to rewrite articles to make them unique, so they can be published on your site or resold. A designer might offer a service designing a business logo or advertising banners for an advertising company or a website owner. Usually a seller will offer a service that they are able to do quickly and easily, so the turn around time for a gig is usually pretty fast.

You might not have the ability to write or design things, however you can always purchase these gigs from Fiverr and sell them elsewhere for a higher price. Some sellers will outsource writing jobs to content mills that pay a couple of dollars for a 200-300 word article and resell the article on Fiverr. This is what Fiverr calls resellers. Quite often a reseller will buy something from elsewhere online for a cheaper price and resell it on Fiverr, therefore making a profit. Resellers might even purchase a service on Fiverr and resell it for a higher price elsewhere, hence making a tidy profit.

How to Create Your Fiverr Account

It is easy to join. Just go to the site via a Google search and open the site. This should take you to the home page. Up the top, click "Join." A miniature page will appear and will request you type in your email address. Do this now and click the join button.

Once on the site you will need to create your profile and learn how to create your gigs or you can browse what users have for sale and see if there is a service or product you can resell for a profit.

I will teach you How to Host a Teleseminar

I will teach you how to make perfume

I will teach how to control your anger

I will teach you how to be a successful Realtor

I will teach you how to succeed as a freelancer

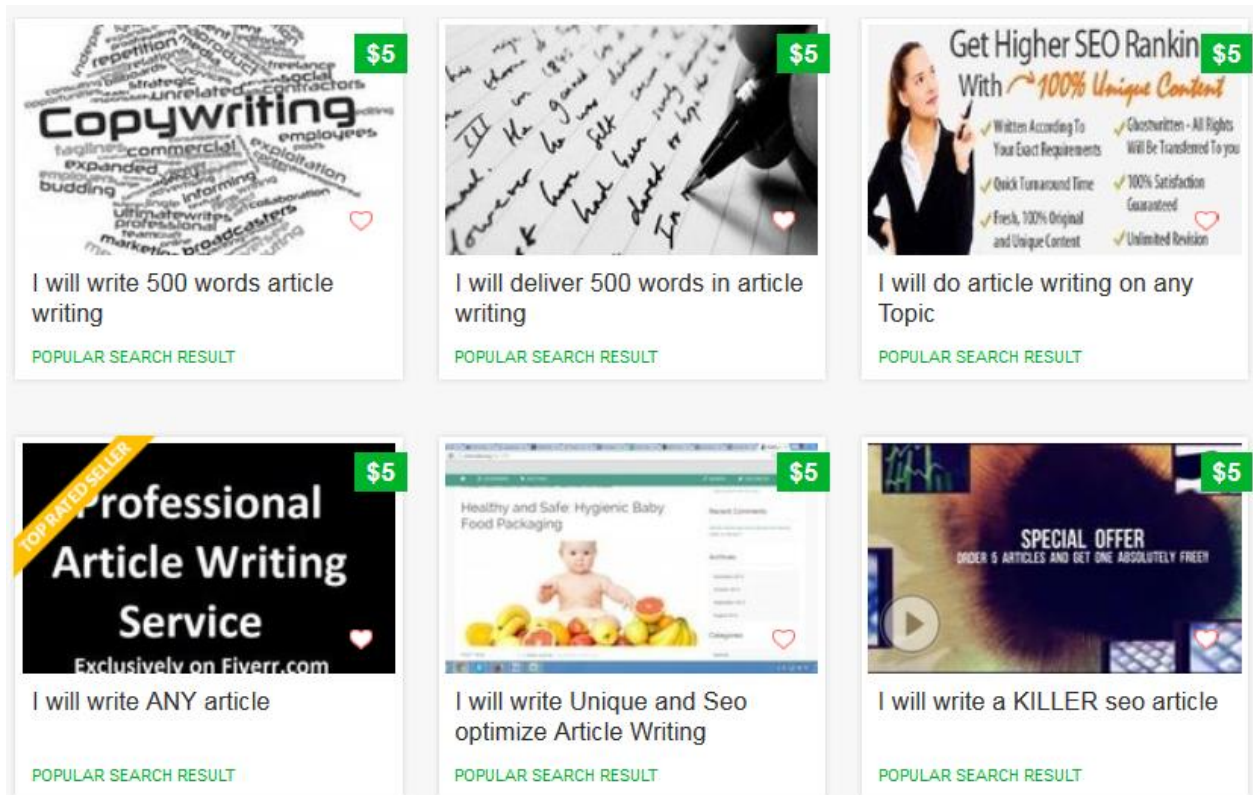

Run a search for “how to” or “teach you” in the search function of the site. This will bring up gigs that offer a service on coaching people on how to use this site.

If you choose to purchase a “how to” gig you will not be receiving a coaching session as these are too expensive, however you will receive an E-book with information related to using Fiverr in the most profitable way. The book is written by someone else, however this book has Private Label Rights (PLR) which means you can resell it to other new users of Fiverr. Any buyer of this book has the right to resell it to others.

How to Set Up A “How to” Gig?

First you will need to find someone who will sell you the book. There are plenty of sites on the Internet where you can purchase PLR E-books. Just run a search via your favorite search engine. You might decide to buy a few of these, especially if they cover topics that people want to learn about. There are even a few PLR sites where their books are free. Usually you join the site and pay a membership fee which allows you to acquire a huge number of PLR E-books, which are on many niches that will sell on Fiverr.

2. Article Writing or Editing Gig

Writing articles can be a profitable if you can build a customer base. You can also offer re-writing and editing services. Some writers make good money on Fiverr writing articles. When you design your gig, encourage your client to give you a rating as this helps you get more work.

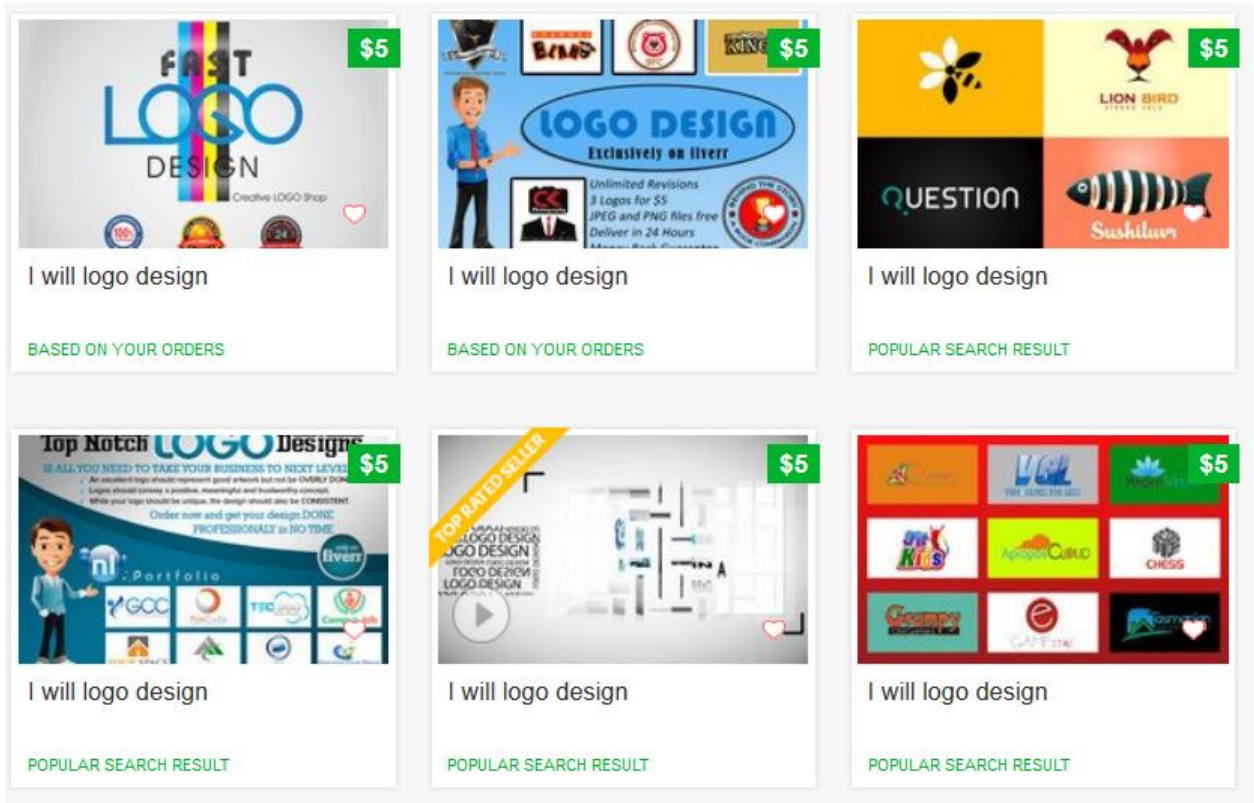

How Can You Deliver an Article Services Gig?

It is not necessary to be a professional writer. You won't even have to write a single word actually. You deliver this gig by joining a site like <http://www.iwriter.com/> where you can have short articles written for $1 or $1.50, you then sell them to the client for $5. So this ensures a profit of $2.50 once Fiverr take their cut.

The client will provide you with everything you need in terms of instructions for the article or articles they need. What it's about, an idea of what the title needs to be and keywords they want in the article, if required. You then place an order with you favorite content mill and you are in business. A little advice: list your job on the content site for a beginner or standard writer, or you will be charged more for the writer to write it. If you do this ten times a week, you will make around $25 clear profit.

Banner and logo designs for people’s businesses are popular on Fiverr. All businesses want some kind of logo. $5 is a great deal to get the expertise of a graphic artist to design something for you.

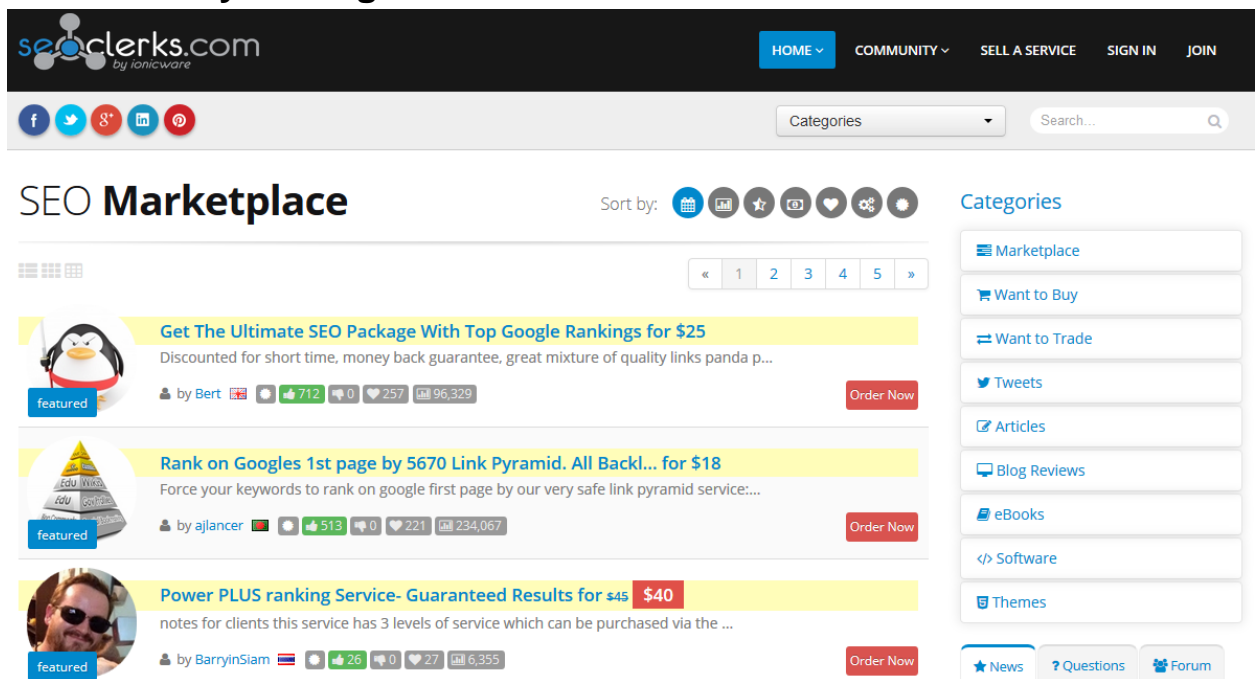

How to Deliver Graphic Design Gigs To Clients?

You don’t need to be a professional designer. There are two ways you can do this; use a free site to design the logo or banner yourself or get your hands on some software that that will allow you to edit the work and get the design your client wants.

You could spend a little cash purchasing a tool that will give you full control in editing a design until you are satisfied it is what your client has requested. There are many websites that will help you to do this such as <http://www.logogarden.com> and <http://www.logotypemaker.com/>

These programs also have other features. They will allow you to design all kinds of logos and banner, but also animated illustrations and change up the graphics on business cards or any other business documents your client needs to look amazing.
